

Chris Geier

CEO
Sikich

Christopher Geier is the CEO and Managing Partner of Sikich LLP. In addition to leading the overall strategic and financial direction of the firm, he is responsible for large mergers and acquisitions and is a member of the Executive Board. Chris is focused on delivering the highest level of professional client service and creating a dynamic workplace where employees can be successful. Previously, Chris served as the Partner-in-Charge of Advisory Services and Sikich's investment banking team.

Chris' leadership experience includes more than 25 years as an advisor and C-level executive in both private and publicly traded companies.

Prior to joining Sikich in 2008, Chris founded GEI Capital, a distressed private equity and turnaround consulting firm. He also founded GEI Advisory, an international mergers and acquisitions advisory and management consulting firm, where he completed transactions domestically and abroad. In addition, he was previously a Regional Manager for MC Sporting Goods with responsibility for a five-state region with 54 retail stores.
