

Our Region. Your Business.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

Business Membership

Supports companies seeking to enhance their competitiveness through employee benefits, build their network and increase their visibility through Chamber events, and access information and resources to strengthen their business and teams.

Business Owner Membership

Supports the individual needs of the business owner/ CEO of second-stage companies. This membership tier combines all the company benefits of the Business Membership with targeted, individual support for the owner through peer connections, concierge services, an online network, and curated events.

Investor Membership

Advances companies who want to lead in the region by engaging them in key initiatives and regional efforts, while increasing their visibility and connectivity with decision-makers. This membership brings together all the employee benefits, business owner benefits and provides for additional exposure, experiences, and recognition opportunities.

Benefits

Staying competitive as an employer requires a strong set of employee benefits. From health coverage and retirement planning to cost-saving services, these benefits are designed to support your workforce and your business.

Connectivity

Expanding your network is key to growing your business. Meet new clients, expand contacts, and gain insights on regional topics at GAC events and programs, open to all employees of member companies.

Visibility

Increasing your visibility strengthens your brand. Leverage the GAC's online Membership Directory, sponsorship opportunities, and video and podcast studios at a member rate to help your business stand out.

Information

Staying informed positions you for what's next. Access key information affecting your business and benefit from the collective advocacy efforts as the GAC advances public policy initiatives that make doing business easier.
